

Worship

January 30, 2011

Welcome to Cross Timbers! It is a privilege to have you join us on this Lord's Day. We have gathered today to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who died for our sins that we might have forgiveness and life in His name. If you are a guest, we are delighted to have you. Please fill out the guest registration part of the bulletin and drop it in the offering plate.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Tonight, Garnett Reid will present to us the life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German pastor who participated in an unsuccessful scheme to assassinate Hitler. He was executed by the Nazis weeks prior to Germany's surrender in World War II.

Ministry Opportunity

There is a need for someone to provide transportation to and from the Rescue Mission in conjunction with our worship services. If you think you may be able to help, please let Bro. Paul know. If we can have several people volunteer, it will make the load much lighter.

VBS Volunteers

A Vacation Bible School planning committee is being formed, and volunteers are needed to lead or participate in each of the following areas: drama, Bible story, crafts, snacks, games, decorating/costumes, publicity, and music. The potential is great and the rewards are too! If you would like to be involved in this ministry, please contact Jack Ketteman or Jessica Edwards immediately.

A CALL FOR ROYAL SERVICE COMES TO ONE AND ALL

In spite of threats of an incoming snowstorm on Thursday, 01-20-11, nine gutsy volunteers from Cross Timbers joined the conference-room-full of Nashville Area Free Will Baptists itching to lend a hand to the office staff of International Missions during 2011. There is still a place for all who wish to serve. See Jack Ketteman, Martha Crowson, or Fay Forlines for more information if you feel led to help in this Royal Christian Service for all ages. Martha and Fay will stuff envelopes at National Offices on Fridays from 1:00-3:00 PM. and invite all who will to ride together.

Baby Bottles

Grace Pregnancy Resource Center has once again donated baby bottles for us to aid in saving unborn lives. Please take a bottle and fill it with leftover pocket change. Return the bottles to the church no later than February 13. A basket is located in the foyer, and another is on the credenza in the church's addition.

Cumberland Camp

Light the Way Campaign is underway at Cumberland Camp in Woodlawn, TN. Director Stan Coker and the Camp Board have decided to expand its facilities by building a Retreat and Conference Center. This new building will cost $350,000. It will include the following: activity space for 160, fully functioning kitchen, oversized fireplace, wraparound porch, and a large utility closet. Please consider giving to this wonderful ministry.

Men's Accountability

Jeremy Bilbrey leads a men's accountability group at the church each Tuesday morning at 6:00. Feel free to invite men who are not affiliated with our church but who may be interested in participating. All men are welcome to attend. Jeremy's contact information is: jb@goodforallcoffee.com, (615) 319-5303.

Seniors Retreat

On March 14-16, Mainstay Suites & Conference Center in Pigeon Forge, TN, will host the 2011 Seniors Retreat. With speakers Bill and Brenda Evans and musician Scott Bullman, it is guaranteed to be a rewarding time for all who attend. Couples, widows, and widowers are all invited. A brochure is posted on the downstairs bulletin board next to the fellowship hall. If you need transportation, let Bro. Paul know. It may be possible for several to ride together.

FWBBC Workshops

On Saturday, March 26, Free Will Baptist Bible College will host two workshops in the Johnson Classroom Building. Doctor Robert Woodard and Rev. Terry Forrest will lead the free workshops entitled "Bible Study Methods" and "Soul Winning & Evangelism," respectively. Registration will begin at 9:00 AM followed by classes at 9:30. They should last no longer than two hours. All are welcome.
