

Worship

November 28, 2010

Welcome to Cross Timbers! It is a privilege to have you join us on this Lord's Day. We have gathered today to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who died for our sins that we might have forgiveness and life in His name. If you are a guest, we are delighted to have you. Christmas in Afghanistan for the Troops

Cross Timbers is currently raising funds to supply our troops in Afghanistan (via Kevin Trimble) with a daily devotional reader by Max Lucado. This Christmas gift costs about $9 a book and we are hoping to send over 100 books. Please consider earmarking a donation for our men and women overseas. The books are scheduled to be delivered by Sergeant Honeycutt who is deploying in December at an undisclosed date.

Dear Church Friends,

Thank you so much for the generous offering for the Tennessee State Promotional Office at the recent "bowl supper." I am sorry I was not able to attend, but I heard all about it. The amount exceeded my expectations.

I especially want to thank the Women Active for Christ who sponsored the supper and were so kind to think of my office. You are a great group of ladies and have done so much for the kingdom work. Thank you again.
In His Service,
Glenn Poston

Dear Cross Timbers Family,
Thank you seems so inadequate for all your deeds of kindness during Ralph's illness.
We are so very grateful for the beautiful fruit basket and your support of us during this time. Your prayers, cards, calls and visits have greatly encouraged us. We are especially grateful for every prayer prayed for us. We have certainly felt them and know God is honoring them.
Our battle is not won but by God's grace and help we are on our way. Thank you for the role you have played. We will be eternally grateful.
With much love and thanksgiving.
Ralph & Margaret Hampton

Shane Brown

If you would like to support Shane Brown's ministry, please write your check to the church and earmark it Shane Brown. He needs $3,000.
