

Worship

September 26, 2010

Welcome to Cross Timbers! It is a privilege to have you join us on this Lord's Day. We have gathered today to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who died for our sins that we might have forgiveness and life in His name. If you are a guest, we are delighted to have you. Please fill out the guest registration part of the bulletin and drop it in the offering plate.

Men's Camping

Men, the annual fall men's camping trip is October 15-16 at the Carter farm, just past Murfreesboro. This is a great opportunity for men, old or young, as well as fathers and sons, to strengthen relationships and make memories. It is also a great occasion to invite our unchurched friends and family. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board by the Fellowship Hall. Please sign up as soon as possible. If you have any questions, then please see Nathan Fletcher.

Thank you for trusting Randall House with your generational discipleship by using D6 Curriculum. Our goal is to help you build strong families by connecting parents with kids. Your commitment to helping parents will cause moms and dads to forever be changed in their relationships. Because of Deut 6:7, Ill John 4, and other similar passages, we come to work every day with churches and families in mind.

Acts 2 Groups

The attendance for the Acts 2 Groups was 103. Special thanks to both our hosts and leaders.

Faith Fellowship

Pastor Sterl Paramore and the Faith Fellowship Free Will Baptist Church of Cookeville are planning to move within the next year. They need to raise $80,000. If you are interested in supporting them, then please earmark your check to Faith Fellowship.

Christian Education Conference

The Christian Education Conference will be held this year on Saturday, October 16, at Rejoice Free Will Baptist Church (2518 Una Antioch Pike, Antioch, TN). It will be in the morning from 9:00 to 11:00. Lunch will be served afterwards. Youth pastor Brandon Stutts will be leading a session entitled "Speaking Teen" for teachers and workers of ages 12 to 18. Jacob Riggs, associate editor at Randall House Publications, will be leading another session called "Reclaiming the Lost Generation." Teachers of ages 18 to 25 and those interested in "reaching out to young adults" are invited to attend.

You Are Invited

Stan Coker's invitation to the Friends of Camp Dinner extends to the entire congregation. Those who are interested in posting reservations should call (931) 647-5111. The times are as follows: Friday, October 22, at 7:00 PM, or Saturday, October 23, at 12:00. "This year's dinner will feature a buffet style meal for you and your family. After the meal, there will be a short presentation to share the vision of Cumberland Camp for the coming year."

Church in the Park Weekend

For several years now, we have devoted one Sunday a year to worshipping the Lord in the great outdoors. This special service is only two weeks away. It will be held at 10:00 at Red Caboose Park. After the service, a lunch will be served to everyone in attendance. A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board downstairs for food items to bring for the meal. Children will have the opportunity to participate in Fall Kid Fest activities that will be held at the park on Saturday, October 9, from 2:00-6:00. Volunteers will be needed before, during, and after the event. Following the Fall Kid Fest, there will be hot dogs and a concert at 7:00. All of these are excellent opportunities to invite the unsaved to church. Please invite friends and neighbors to attend, and then pray that the Lord will speak to their hearts.
